

Extend your Cycling Tour and visit more of Beautiful Zealand

2015

Prolongation of a Zealand Cycling Tour

Continue your trip around beautiful Zealand by extending your stay by a few more days, and visit historical Køge and the picturesque cliffs at Stevns.

Zealand is an amazing island and home to the Danish capital, Copenhagen. Enjoy the beautiful green landscapes, the ideal conditions for cycling and the many kilometres of secluded pathways ahead. Therefore, we offer the possibility to extend your stay by one or two days and show you even more of this wonderful place.

Day 7. Roskilde – Køge, 45-50 kms

Instead of going directly to Copenhagen on the last day of cycling in your original tour, the route will now take you south to Køge Bay. Going from Roskilde you start out going through little charming towns and the peaceful recreational area around Hedeland, where an old gravel pit has been transformed into an incredible nature reserve buzzing with lively activities. Try riding on Iceland Ponies, take a trip with the preserved locomotive or have fun at the nature playgrounds, and continue on to Køge along the coast.

Day 8. Daytrip to Stevns, 30-70 kms (only in DKK-2A)

Spend the day taking a beautiful daytrip to the spectacular cliffs at Stevns further south. Enjoy the amazing view and hiking trails, and set the length of the route according to your own needs and energy. Along the way you go through areas that were once populated by farmers but is now mainly covered by cosy summerhouses and make out a great place for a break. Once you get to Stevns it is definitely recommendable to take a walk and a closer look at the steep cliffs disappearing into the sea, but be careful to stay at a safe distance to the edge. Visit the church that got a little too close and left only a small part of it standing, when the rest fell off the eroding edge in 1928. Go back to Køge by bike, or continue to Fakse and take a direct train (ticket is not included).

Day 9. Køge – Copenhagen, 45 kms

Follow the coast most of the way back to Copenhagen where the tour started. Go through the quiet suburbs, enjoy the cosy cafés, restaurants and beaches, and sense the transition from the outskirts of town to the vibrant capital. You enter the city from the south, make a swift detour to the island Amager and go along pathways where the landscape is beautifully preserved. This place is kept for cyclists, pedestrians and the cows and horses that are kept here, and it constitutes a quiet oasis close to the noise and endless possibilities of the big city.

Day 10. Copenhagen

A memorable tour has ended. Depart after breakfast at the hotel - or extend your stay again by another few days in this beautiful and charming city.

Back on track

Even though the extra days are a prolongation, the main tour is not entirely over when they begin. The extension is inserted between the two last days of the main program, which means that instead of going directly to Copenhagen the route takes you south to Køge and possibly Stevns. On your way back to Copenhagen the route merges with the original program, and everything included in your main tour is therefore also a part of the prolongation.
