Feel and explore the Danish capital Copenhagen by bike and visit the royal, maritime and charming towns and spectacular landscapes surrounding it.

Explore the many wonders of Copenhagen and join the everlasting parade of cycling Danes around the city streets. Ride your bike along the coast and into the Danish countryside. Visit legendary castles in the Northern Zealand, great Vikings, former kings and queens in Roskilde and charming buildings in Køge.

Day 1. Arrival in Copenhagen

Welcome to a capital where cyclists are kings! Enjoy the cozy and relaxed atmosphere, easy-going living and plenty of experiences in a combination of old-world charm and modern lifestyle. Copenhagen is a melting pot of options and you can easily spend a few days here without getting bored.

Day 2. Day trip North to Helsingør (Elsinore), 47 or 95 kms

You leave Copenhagen and head North. On the way to Helsingør you bike mostly along the coast with a view to Sweden and the famous Bellevue Beach invites to a swim in the clean, blue water. Visit Kronborg Castle in Helsingør and say hello to Hamlet and the national hero Holger the Dane – a statue sitting in the cellar of the castle, protecting peace in Denmark. Ride back to Copenhagen, or enjoy the evening in the charming, old, maritime and historic town and take the direct train back to Copenhagen.

Day 3. Day trip South to Køge, 40 or 80 kms

You cycle South on beautiful car free bike paths partly along the shores of Køge Bay to the cozy old town Køge that has been a center for all kinds of trade since medieval times. Today you find many nice cafés and shops in the beautiful old market square and no other city in Denmark has so many old houses and buildings as Køge with the oldest Danish town hall in operation and the oldest half-timbered house. Spend the day here and take the train back, or return by bike via another beautiful route.
